Note about the music for this Sunday, June 19

The lyrics for "Come, thou fount" were written by the 18th century pastor and hymn composer Robert Robinson in 1757. The tune origin, however is uncertain.

From William J. Reynolds, Companion to Baptist Hymnal (1976):

"Nettleton first appeared as a two-part tune in John Wyeth's Repository of Sacred Music, Part Second (1813, p. 112), where it was named Hallelujah. In the Index it is identified as a new tune, and no composer's name is given. The tune has been attributed to some to Asahel Nettleton (1783-1844), a well-known evangelist of the early nineteenth century, who compiled Village Hymns (1825). However, this compilation contained no music, and there is no evidence that Nettleton wrote any tunes during his life . . . It is not known where the tune name first appeared or who was responsible for it." (pp. 53-54) The tune may have been written by John Wyeth himself. -Sean Fleming

Unity and Pride Day

On Saturday, 25 June, join members of Lincoln County's LGBTQIA+ community and their Allies, for a UNITY + PRIDE EVENT. June is Pride Month...even here in Lincoln County!

We will gather at 11 a.m. at the Veterans Memorial Park in Newcastle. Bring signs in support of our LGBTQIA+ youth (or just bring yourself and a friend) as we march up Main Street to Rising Tide where there will be music by the Horseshoe Crabs, refreshments, inspiring comments from local leaders and an opportunity to support each other during what can best be described as fractured times.

The lives of some of our community's youngest and most vulnerable are at stake. Show your care and join us on Saturday 25 June. Contact Jim Swan at 310-628-1453 with any questions.

Holy Men and Holy Women: Evelyn Underhill, Mystic and Writer

On almost every day of the year, the Episcopal Church honors faithful followers of Jesus who went before us. Every Wednesday at St. Andrew's during our Healing Eucharist, we remember one or more of these Holy Men and Women. We take time to remember these people for three important reasons. First, they deserve to be remembered. The people chosen for our calendar, are remembered because they were particularly remarkable followers of Jesus. The second reason we remember them is because in remembering we are connected to Christians throughout time. And last but not least, we remember them because in remembering we can learn how to be better followers of Jesus in our day and time.

This week we remember Evelyn Underhill. Please click here to learn more about her.
