Brent Douglass to play this Sunday

This Sunday we welcome back Brent Douglass as our guest organist. He will play this week and next while Sean is on vacation. Below is his music note for this Sunday

Music note for Sunday, August 28

Sir Charles Stanford, born in 1852, was an Irish composer, teacher and conductor. While studying at the University of Cambridge, Stanford was appointed to the prestigious position of organist of Trinity College, Cambridge. In 1882, at age 29, he was one of the founding professors of the Royal College of Music, where he taught composition for the rest of his life. Stanford's composition, the tune Engelberg was published in Hymns Ancient and Modern in 1904, with no less than six different textual settings, among which are the Easter hymn, "We know that Christ is raised and dies no more," "When in our Music God is Glorified," "For all the Saints who from their labors rest," and our recessional hymn this Sunday, "All praise to thee, for thou, O King divine."
