Aug. 13, 20, 27, and Sept. 3 - Brent Douglass, organ

Amanda-Joyce Abbott, soprano, has sung in recital and with orchestras and opera companies across the United States, and also in France, Germany, and Italy in concerts with the Kent Camerata chamber ensemble. She is also an instructor. She has lectured and taught applied voice at Kent State University in Kent, Ohio, and is currently teaching voice at the University of Mount Union in Alliance, Ohio. On a personal note, Ms. Abbott resides in Green, Ohio. She has two children, a daughter and a son, four grandsons, and one great-grandson.

Torres meets Tárrega: Spanish guitar music from 1864 - 1920

Timothy Burris, guitar

Free-will offering at the door to benefit St. Andrew's Community Outreach program

Plucked-string specialist Timothy Burris will bring a program of 19th- and early 20th-century music for classical guitar at several venues over the Summer and early Fall.

The program will include works of Spanish guitarist/composers from Julian Arcas to Francisco Tárrega (from the region of Almería) to several composers from Cataluña (José Ferrer, José Viñas, Jaume Bosch i Renard, and the best known, Miguel Llobet). Mr Burris will sketch the cultural milieu that gave rise to this hotbed of creative fervor for the guitar—and the arts in general.

The guitar used in the program will be a modern copy of Antonio Torres' FE17 (built for Mr Burris by Richard Berg of Ottawa). The original was completed in 1864 and given by Torres to a young but promising Francisco Tárrega, from whose hands it eventually passed to the young but preternaturally gifted Argentinian, Maria Anido.

Timothy Burris has performed widely on lute and guitar in Europe and the US, including many appearances with world-renowned early music specialists. Regionally, he is the lutenist of BOOM, the Baroque Orchestra of Maine; he and cellist Raffael Scheck appear as the duo ScheckMate.

Mr Burris holds a soloist's diploma from the Royal Conservatory in The Hague, where he studied with the world-renowned lutenist Toyohiko Satoh and the Uruguayan guitarist Antonio Pereira-Arias (who himself studied with Andrés Segovia). He also holds a PhD from Duke University (his dissertation focused on the use of lute and theorbo in ensemble vocal music at the Dresden court).

Pizza and Chat: Families and Volunteers

If you have children (or grandchildren) under the age of 18, or think you might like to volunteer to minister with families at St. Andrew's, you are invited to pizza and chat on Sunday, July 23 from 4-6 pm at the rector's home. You can find her address in the directory or contact her via email to receive it (stasrector@tidewater.net).

We will be talking about what families need from St. Andrew's and ways we can meet that need. The kids can have fun playing in the yard (including on the trampoline) and joining in the conversation as they wish.

If you are wondering what volunteering might involve, well we don't have it all nailed down yet, but here are some ideas:

- Cooking a meal for the families to share at their once a month Sunday afternoon gathering (casserole, salad, drinks, cookies)
- Leading some sort of lesson at one of the Sunday afternoon gatherings
- Helping to coordinate and lead worship at one of the Sunday afternoon gatherings
- Helping to organize and prepare the kids to acolyte on the once a month kids in church Sundays

If you are interested in possibly volunteering, but can't come on the 23rd, please contact Suzannah. Please RSVP by Saturday, July 22, so Suzannah will know how much pizza to order.

Sean Fleming 's Upcoming Musical Event

Maine Friends of Music concert
Tuesday, July 25 at 6:30pm
South Bristol Union Church, United Church of Christ

Back by popular demand, Maine Friends of Music, a professional chamber ensemble composed of renowned soprano Mary Sullivan, flutist Linda Brunner, bassoonist David DeBolt, and keyboardist Sean Fleming, will perform at the Union Church of South Bristol on Tuesday, July 25, at 6:30 PM. The program will feature music by Donizetti, Handel, Rossini, Mozart, Cherubini, Puccini, Floyd, and more. As a special treat, the humorous "Stay With Me" will be performed from P.D.Q. Bach's opera parody "The Abduction of Figaro." Donations will be gratefully accepted at the door for the concert. For more information, please call David DeBolt at 207-644-0066 or visit www.mainefriendsofmusic.com.

Maine Friends of Music continues its 2023 concert series at the Knox Museum in Thomaston on Friday, August 4 at noon, with admission by donation.

Holy Women, Holy Men Macrina of Caesarea also known as Macrina the Younger Monastic and Teacher

On almost every day of the year, the Episcopal Church honors faithful followers of Jesus who went before us. Every Wednesday at St. Andrew's during our Healing Eucharist, we remember one of more of these Holy Men and Women. We take time to remember these people for three important reasons. First, they deserve to be remembered. The people chosen for our calendar are remembered because they were particularly remarkable followers of Jesus. The second reason we remember them is because in remembering we are connected to Christians throughout time. And last but not least, we remember them because in remembering we can learn how to be better followers of Jesus in our day and time.

This week we remember Macrina of Caesarea. Please click here to learn more about her.
