Upcoming Sunday Lenten Series begins March 9

Please join me (Suzannah) during the Sundays of Lent following the 10 am service to discuss Bishop Mariann Budde's book, How We Learn to Be Brave: Decisive Moments in Life and Faith Bishop Budde is the Bishop of the Diocese of Washington (DC) who preached about mercy at the prayer service in the National Cathedral (Episcopal) in Washington DC following the inauguration of the president. We will read a chapter each week for the six weeks of Lent.

The Lenten Series will begin on Sunday, March 9 after the 10am service and will continue through Lent. Please contact me with any questions at stasrector@tidewater.net - Suzannah

Here is the write up about Bishop Budde's book:

How We Learn to Be Brave is an inspirational guide to the key junctures in life that, if navigated with faith and discernment, pave the way for us to become our most courageous selves, by the bishop of the famed Episcopal Diocese of Washington, D.C.

On January 21, 2025, many Americans were introduced to Bishop Mariann Budde thanks to what The New York Times called “an extraordinary act of public resistance.” During her prayer service for Donald J. Trump’s second inauguration, Bishop Budde addressed the president directly, imploring him “to have mercy on the people in our country who are scared now,” from those who are part of the LGBTQ+ community to immigrants and refugees.

*But for Bishop Budde, this moment was the culmination of a lifetime spent thinking about those pivot points when we’re called on to push past our fears and act with strength. With How We Learn to Be Brave, she teaches us that being brave is not a singular occurrence; it’s a journey that we can choose to undertake every day.*

Here, Bishop Budde explores the full range of decisive moments, from the most visible and dramatic (the decision to go), to the internal and personal (the decision to stay), to brave choices made with an eye toward the future (the decision to start), those born of suffering (the decision to accept that which we did not choose), and those that come unexpectedly (the decision to step up to the plate). Drawing on examples ranging from Harry Potter to the Gospel According to Luke, she seamlessly weaves together personal experiences with stories from scripture, history, and pop culture to underscore both the universality of these moments and the particular call each one of us must heed when they arrive.

*With Bishop Budde’s wisdom, readers will learn to live and to respond according to their true beliefs and in ways that align with their best selves. How We Learn to Be Brave will provide much-needed fortitude and insight to anyone searching for answers in uncertain times.*

The Lenten Series will begin on Sunday, March 9 after the 10am service and will continue through Lent. The book is available on Amazon and may be available at area bookstores or libraries. Please contact me with any questions at stasrector@tidewater.net

Women, Holy Men Photini The Samaritan Woman

On almost every day of the year, the Episcopal Church honors faithful followers of Jesus who went before us. Every Wednesday at St. Andrew's during our Healing Eucharist, we remember one of more of these Holy Men and Women. We take time to remember these people for three important reasons. First, they deserve to be remembered. The people chosen for our calendar are remembered because they were particularly remarkable followers of Jesus. The second reason we remember them is because in remembering we are connected to Christians throughout time. And last but not least, we remember them because in remembering we can learn how to be better followers of Jesus in our day and time.

This week we remember Photini. Please click here to learn more about her.
