

This week at St. Andrew's

Thursday, March 6, 2025

Welcome to St. Andrew's Weekly E-mail Newsletter. In an effort to keep the congregation better informed we will be sending out this newsletter on Thursdays to cover events happening at the church through the following Wednesday. We hope you find it useful.

The time will spring forward this weekend, Before you head to bed on Saturday night, set your manual clocks ahead one hour.

The Mission of St. Andrew's Parish is to worship God, grow in discipleship, and share Christ's love.

Livestreaming message:

This past Sunday we were unable to stream the 10AM service via Facebook for unknown technical reasons. After a 1/2 hour of troubleshooting we were able to livestream via YouTube. We had been planning to shift to YouTube this winter, but the change is now upon us.

Our YouTube channel is https://youtube.com/@st.andrewseiscopalchurchn5752?si=yzz_2BM3_DiYur7i If you have a "Smart TV" with the YouTube app installed, you can watch the service Live or play it later.

To find our channel on the YouTube app, enter: @st.andrewseiscopalchurchn5752

Problems, send an email to stastech@tidewater.net. Facebook messenger will no longer be used.

Upcoming Sunday Lenten Series begins March 9

Please join me (Suzannah) during the Sundays of Lent following the 10 am service to discuss Bishop Mariann Budde's book, How We Learn to Be Brave: Decisive Moments in Life and Faith Bishop Budde is the Bishop of the Diocese of Washington (DC) who preached about mercy at the prayer service in the National Cathedral (Episcopal) in Washington DC following the inauguration of the president. We will read a chapter each week for the six weeks of Lent.

Here is the write up about Bishop Budde's book:

How We Learn to Be Brave is an inspirational guide to the key junctures in life that, if navigated with faith and discernment, pave the way for us to become our most courageous selves, by the bishop of the famed Episcopal Diocese of Washington, D.C.

The Lenten Series will begin on Sunday, March 9 after the 10am service and will continue through Lent. The book is available on Amazon and may be available at area bookstores or libraries. There is also a copy of the book in the church library which may be signed out.

Please contact me with any questions at stasrector@tidewater.net - Suzannah

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper a success!

On Tuesday, many gathered for the annual Shrove Tuesday pancake supper. Thanks to all who brought food, cooked, served, cleaned up and ate pancakes! The children and families played a large part, setting up for the dinner and cleaning up after the event. Many thanks also to the fiddlers who provided music during dinner. A free will offering raised $283 to be donated to ECHP and CHIP.

Pancake flippers Alex Pugh and Ann Kash (pictured) with help from Maari Glendinning and Charlie Rohman. Lili Pugh kept the kitchen running.

A good time was had by all! Madeline Rohman, Charlie they were great!

A Message from the Earth Keepers Team:

Want to try treading a little lighter on the Earth for Lent? The St. Andrew's Earth Keepers have some suggestions for you. Do as much as you are moved to do. Let us know about your practice." Please click here to view the Going Farther flyer which outlines eight problems presented by the United Nations Environment Program with a few solutions from the UNEP and the Earth Keepers. There are also printed copies in the back of the church.

New Lenten Altar Hangings

The new purple altar frontal, pulpit hanging, chasuble and stole were given in memory of Hester Stuhlman and blessed last year.

Ecumenical Council on Homeless Prevention (ECHP)

Thanks to your generous donations on the first Sunday of the month, St. Andrew's was able to send $461 in cash and checks to help support ECHP and it's mission.
