In-person, outdoor service returning to St. Andrew's

There will be an in-person, outdoor service of Holy Eucharist at 12:00pm every Sunday in the month of May (weather permitting) beginning May 2. This service will be held at noon on the church grounds and will be livestreamed as well. It will replace the 8am livestreamed service for the month of May. No sign up is required and chairs will be provided if you do not wish to bring your own. Masks must be worn and social distancing maintained. There will be no tent so please check your email for cancellation notification if the weather is bad. If the outdoor service is cancelled, you may watch the livestreamed indoor service on facebook or later on youtube.

Musical Note for Sunday, April 25, 2021

On April 25 we will sing the hymn "The King of love my shepherd is" to the tune St. Columba. St. Columba is named for the Irish saint who carried the torch of Irish Christianity to Scotland. The tune is one of the Irish melodies collected by George Petrie (1789-1866) and was included in Charles Villiers Stanford's Complete Collection of Irish Music in 1902. In Ireland it is said to have been sung at the dedication of a chapel in the county of Londonderry. The association of the tune with this text, and also its harmonization, are from The English Hymnal, first published in 1906. - Sean Fleming

Bob Gorrill Photo presentation Tuesday, April 27 at 2:00pm on Zoom

Several St. Andrew's parishioners are members of Hearts Ever Young (HEY), a unique, theatrical group composed of the "more senior" members of the Midcoast Maine community. Since 2010, HEY has produced concerts featuring song, dance, and more. After HEY meetings moved to Zoom last year, several members of the group have given presentations about various subjects. Parishioner Bob Gorrill has been a member of HEY from the beginning. On Tuesday, April 27 at 2:00 PM on Zoom, Bob will show photos of his long and interesting career as a photographer. Among his many successes were at least 10 covers for the Boston Herald magazine, and 3 covers for The Boston Globe magazine. On April 27 will show those cover photos, and other photos centered around Boston. Don't miss it! To join the presentation on Zoom, please contact Sean Fleming at sean68@email.com for login information, or watch the presentation as it happens or later at <https://www.facebook.com/seanjamesfleming/videos/>.
