Holy Men and Holy Women: Josephine Margaret Bakhita

On almost every day of the year, the Episcopal Church honors faithful followers of Jesus who went before us. Every Wednesday at St. Andrew's during our Healing Eucharist, we remember one or more of these Holy Men and Women. We take time to remember these people for three important reasons. First, they deserve to be remembered. The people chosen for our calendar, are remembered because they were particularly remarkable followers of Jesus. The second reason we remember them is because in remembering we are connected to Christians throughout time. And last but not least, we remember them because in remembering we can learn how to be better followers of Jesus in our day and time.

This week we remember Josephine Margaret Bakhita. Please click here to learn more about her.

People from St. Andrew's are involved in many groups and activities. We will try to feature some in the newsletter as often as we can. If you are interested in writing about your group. please send something to the church office email (stasnew@tidewater.net)

Benedictines

Studying the Rule of St. Benedict is a jumping off place for those of us who gather weekly to explore many aspects of Christianity and our faith in a very personal way. We begin by reading a Psalm (which we take turns choosing) and discussing how it strikes us at that moment. The most common reaction is amazement at where that conversation can take us, as well as how little human nature has changed over the centuries. We then read a section of a book pertaining to St. Benedict's Rule. These have ranged from simple rephrasing of the actual text to a variety of commentaries, all of which have been enlightening. It is astonishing to find that guidelines written by a man who most wanted to be reclusive in the 4th century can be so pertinent to our lives today. We are always open to others, of any faith, to join us, as we wrestle with matters large and small, with St. Benedict's guidance. - Edie Vaughan

The Benedictine Group meets on Wednesdays at 11:15am on Zoom. Please see the Zoom information in the meeting section above.
