Music note for the 8am Easter Sunday service

Felix Mendelssohn was commissioned in 1844 to write a 'set of voluntaries' by the English publishers Coventry and Hollier. Mendelssohn wrote six sonatas for that commission; the prelude for the 8:00 service on Easter Sunday was the first movement of the third sonata in the series. In the beginning of the third sonata, Mendelssohn uses music that he originally wrote for his sister Fanny's wedding. The movement's second section is in A minor; listen to the pedals to hear the chorale tune Aus tiefer Not. "Aus tiefer Not schrei ich zu dir" can be translated as "From the deep I cry out to thee." The tune can be found at number 151 in The Hymnal 1982. The third section continues in minor with the Aus tiefer Not chorale continuing in the pedals, with the chorale tune transforming into a triumphant pedal line. This exuberant pedal line takes us back to A major, with music that is similar to the music from the beginning of the piece. -Sean Fleming

Lincoln Academy junior, Ralph Zoorob, is student of the month. Congratulations!

Ralph and Marc Zoorob were inducted into the National Honor Society at Lincoln Academy last Thursday. They are pictured here with friend, Bella, and Forest Holbrook, who was inducted last year.

Holy Men and Holy Women: Zenaida, Philonella, and Hermione Unmercenary Physicians

On almost every day of the year, the Episcopal Church honors faithful followers of Jesus who went before us. Every Wednesday at St. Andrew's during our Healing Eucharist, we remember one or more of these Holy Men and Women. We take time to remember these people for three important reasons. First, they deserve to be remembered. The people chosen for our calendar, are remembered because they were particularly remarkable followers of Jesus. The second reason we remember them is because in remembering we are connected to Christians throughout time. And last but not least, we remember them because in remembering we can learn how to be better followers of Jesus in our day and time.

This week we remember Zenaida, Philonella, and Hermione. Please click here to learn more about her.
