

This week at St. Andrew's

Thursday, January 19, 2023

Welcome to St. Andrew's Weekly E-mail Newsletter. In an effort to keep the congregation better informed we will be sending out this newsletter on Thursdays to cover events happening at the church through the following Wednesday. We hope you find it useful.

The Mission of St. Andrew's Parish is to worship God, grow in discipleship, and share Christ's love.

The Flower Guild is starting up again

The flower guild has been reorganized for 2023. If you would like to give flowers in memory or thanksgiving for someone special on a particular Sunday during the year, you may contact Sally Pearce (757-345-1502 or salpearce1943@icloud.com). You can let her know what type/color of flowers you would like along with who you are giving them in honor of. The cost is $60/Sunday. The flower guild will get the information from Sally and arrange for the flowers and have them on the altar for your Sunday.

If you would like to be part of the flower guild ministry, please contact the church office. The guild arranges for the altar flowers and decorates the church with flowers at Christmas and Easter.

Coffee Hours this Sunday

This Sunday, there will be coffee hours in the undercroft after each of the services hosted by Ruth Piper and Andy Donaldson after the 8am service and by Cindy Freese and Sara Sandberg after the 10am service. Please come for coffee, goodies and fellowship

Ecumenical Food Pantry Note:

We have learned that the Ecumenical Food Pantry is no longer accepting donations of food and supplies. Thank you for your past donations but we are unable to collect items for them anymore. We continue to forward check and cash donations designated for the food pantry.

New Pictorial Parish Directory

We are currently working on an updated pictorial directory for the church. If you would like to update your picture or any information on your profile, please send the changes to the church office by Monday, February 6. Thank you.

Snowy Weather

In case of snowy weather, please check your email or the church phone message (563-3533) for any service changes due to the weather.

Holy Women, Holy Men Anthony of Egypt

On almost every day of the year, the Episcopal Church honors faithful followers of Jesus who went before us. Every Wednesday at St. Andrew's during our Healing Eucharist, we remember one of more of these Holy Men and Women. We take time to remember these people for three important reasons. First, they deserve to be remembered. The people chosen for our calendar are remembered because they were particularly remarkable followers of Jesus. The second reason we remember them is because in remembering we are connected to Christians throughout time. And last but not least, we remember them because in remembering we can learn how to be better followers of Jesus in our day and time.

This week we remember Anthony of Egypt. Please click here to learn more about him.
